A delightful entry into the Mad Lib Series, Doctor Who Mad Libs will certainly please fans, although it will also be funny for everybody else. Although the tone of the book is closer to 21st century Who than the classic series, one can feel that the authors were careful to respect (with their tongues placed firmly on their cheeks, of course) the TV show's mythos as a whole, and you'll get time travel, daleks, cybermen, and enemies and companions galore to have a laugh with.
