professional writers just starting out are likely to make a few common mistakes. Here are a few you'll want to avoid: Expecting too much too soon It will take time to develop your professional career, just as it takes time to develop any career. For a while, you'll just be establishing your professional identity, and then you might get a little work here and there. It won't be enough to pay the bills, at least at first, but that's to be expected. Stay committed and be persistent, and your professional writing will eventually pay dividends. Lacking confidence You might be afraid to start because you don't think you're qualified. You'll need to conquer that fear, however, and develop confidence in yourself and your abilities. As professionalr Anne Wayman argues in "6 professional Writing Careers and How to Overcome Them," on her site About professional Writing, "the bottom line is if you want to be a successful writer you've got to quit giving into your fears.
