The trust, recognized originally in Chancery, is based on confidence and developed from the use; it has been described as the most important contribution of English equity to jurisprudence. The beneficiary has rights against the trustee and may also have rights over the property in the hands of others (see tracing trust property). When a sole beneficiary is 18 or over, sane, and entitled to all the trust property, he may require the trustees to transfer that property to him; this applies ...

official proposals for law reform. In a subject that is heavily case-based, the content of Todd and Watt's Cases and Materials on Equity and Trusts provides a complete source of reference for students. Logically set out, the book is structured to correspond to a typical undergraduate course in equity and trusts, with materials linked by engaging commentary and stimulating questions with answers, as well as suggestions for further study. The sixth edition has been revised to include a new chapter dedicated to equitable doctrines and remedies. It has also been updated to include the Charities Act 2006, the Law Commission report on Trustee Exemption Clauses (2006) and consultation paper on Cohabitation (2006), and numerous new cases, including Re Farepak Foods (2006), Re Horley Town Football Club (2006), Barlow Clowes International Ltd. (In Liquidation) v. Eurotrust International Limited (2005), and Charter plc v City Index Ltd (2007). This new edition is especially notable for the inclusion of extracts from recent scholarly articles by several of the world's leading academic thinkers on the law of trusts. Online Resource Centre Fully supported by an Online Resource Centre orientated towards consolidating students' understanding and providing a forum for self-assessment. Resources include regular updates to changes and developments in relevant cases, suggested answers to questions in the book, and links to key websites.

Presenting practical answers to fifty typical exam questions, this new edition helps students to penetrate and understand the complexities of equity and trusts. Traditionally a difficult subject for those approaching it for the first time, special care has been taken to present the subject as a whole in a structured way, with basic matters examined first before moving on to more difficult concepts.

Incorporating new questions and answers, this new edition has been fully updated to include: recent case law e.g. Choithram v Pagarani 2001, Pennington v Waine 2002, Twinsectra v Yardley 2002, Duggan v Governor of Full Sutton Prison 2004 discussion of the Charities Bill 2004 the implications of the Trustee Act 2000. Clarifying the mysteries surrounding the study of equity and trusts, this book contains essential advice and examples which illustrate how to successfully answer examination questions on the subject.
