environment is his language learning lab. On the contrary and ironically, most people base their fluency development efforts on grammar books and dictionaries as core materials. Do good speakers really think of grammar rules when they speak? Do they keep recalling synonyms or antonyms as they speak? The answer is a definite 'NO'.

Therefore, your fluency development exercise should also not revolve around dictionaries and grammar books as primary materials. If you did that, it would only serve to obstruct your fluency. You become fluent when you efficiently express your mind using your vocabulary. Undue emphasis on memorizing grammar rules and word-meanings are never going to give you that power. Thus, gain
